TO THE READER.

HAVING obſerv'd in the many Books publiſh'd of late of Markets, Fairs, Roads, Coaches, and Carriers, ſeveral promiſcuous Miſtakes, great Omiſſions, and very difficult and puzzeling to be underſtood; I reſolv'd, if poſſible, to collect a more compleat and exact Liſt, not only of the Coaches and Carriers, but likewiſe the Addition of ſeveral Markets and Fairs, never in any Book of this Nature before.

AND to render this Work the more Pleaſant, as well as Uſeful, I have here alſo given the Reader a Deſcription of the Nature, Soil, and chief Commodities of every County in England and Wales, with the Number of Parliament-Men, Diſtance of all the noted Towns from London, Roads, Croſs-Roads, &c. The Whole done in an Alphabetical Manner, very eaſy and plain; which I hope will be acceptable, and anſwer the Trouble and Deſign; which will be a great Satisfaction to your humble Servant,

THAT you may take the better Notice of these Carmen, you must observe their Number and Mark; for every one that is Licenced has a Brass with the Number on it, and branded with the City Arms upon the Shafts of the Cart. For if any Person works without such a Number and Mark, he shall forfeit for every Offence 13*s.* 4*d.* Also, if any Carman carry any Coals in his Cart without a good and lawful Bushel, and good and lawful Sacks, agreeing with the Bushel kept at Guild-hall, and Sea-Coal-Meters Sacks, he shall forfeit for each offence 10 s. So if any Carman put into his Cart any more than one Horse for the Carriage of any Merchandize, except up a hill, or with Timber, Stone, or other Commodities, where the Load cannot be divided, he shall pay for his first Offence 1. s. for the second 20 s. and for every other 30 s. and the supernumerary Horse to be impounded until the Penalty be paid.

Likewise, if any Drayman, or Carman, that drives, shall ride thereon, or drive his Horse a Trot, through, or in the Street, he shall be carried before a Justice of Peace to be dealt with according to the Offence, and the Horses, or Mares, shall be carried to the Green-yard.

Or if any Carman be taken not leading his Horse by the Head, he shall forfeit for every Offence 2 s.

Those Merchants, or others, that have occasion to use Carts, are free to choose what Carts they please; except such as stand for Wharf-work, Tackle-work, and Crain-work; which are to stand in order, and to be taken in turn.

So if any Person refuse to pay the Rates following, the Carman is to appeal to the Governors of Christ's Hospital, or to any Justice of the Peace, where he may be relieved.

Or if any Gentleman, or other, shall cause any Carman to stay with his loaden Carr, above half an hour before he unloads, and the Carman being willing to help to unload the same; such Merchants, or other Persons, shall pay after the Ra-of Twelve-pence per Hour, after the first half Hour, for his Attendance.

So when any Carman stands with his empty Carr, next to any Goods that are to be loaden, he shall on the first demand load the same without any Delay, or bargainging for other Wages than is appointed in the following Rates; and if he shall refuse to load, he shall pay for his first Offence 5 s. and for every other Offence 10 s. and the next Cart, in order, that shall be willing, shall be at liberty to load the same.

Likewise, no Carman is to come to any of the Wharfs, or Places of keeping turn between the Bridge and Tower-wharf, before five of the Clock in the Morning in the Summer Time, or before seven of the Clock in the Morning in the Winter Time, unless a Merchant, or any other Person, have an extraordinary Occasion to require to the contrary.

Also, the Carman for the following Rates, is to help to Load and Unload; and if any Carman shall take for his Labour and Hire above the Rates following, limited and appointed, and the same be duly proved by the Testimony of one, or more Credible Witness, or Witnesses, before the Lord Mayor, or any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, such Carman shall suffer Imprisonment for the space of 21 Days, without Bail or Mainprize, according to the Statute in that behalf, and shall undergo such farther Pains and Penalties, as by the Law may be inflicted for the said Offence.

And if any Carman shall refuse to appear upon the Summons of the President and Governours of Christ's Hospital, he shall be punished at the Discretion of the said President and Governours, either by Fine, Penalty, or Suspension.

Complaints of the Abuſes of Carmen may be made every Tueſday at two a Clock in the Afternoon, to the Court ſitting in Chriſt's Hoſpital; where telling the Number of the Cart, the Carman's Name will be found out, and he puniſhed.

All Carmen working with a Cart in the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, may demand and take for every Load the Rates hereafter following, that is to ſay,

T DEN-

DENBIGHSIRE,

IS mostly in the Diocese of St. Asaph; but the Vale of Clywd, is all or most of it in Bangor Diocese, and Denbigh itself is in that of St. Asaph. And here it may not be improper to observe, that the Reason why the Jurisdictions of the Bishops of St. Asaph and Bangor are so intermixt, is suppos'd to be, because the former was Bishop in the Dominions of the Princes of North-Wales, and the latter in those of the Princes of Powis-Land. This County is 116 Miles in Circumference, and contains about 410,000 Acres, and 6,398 Houses. The East Part is naturally Fruitful, and the West improv'd with the Ashes of burnt-Turf; the Inhabitants are chearful and long liv'd. Here is plenty of Rye, or Amel-Corn. Goats and Sheep, and good Quantity of Lead Oar in many Parts of this Country. It hath 57 Parishes, and 4 Market-Towns, one of which is Denbigh, which hath a most impregnable Castle: This is a Town of good Trade for Tanners and Glovers; Wrexham, the biggest Town in North Wales, hath a neat Church, and lofty Steeple: The chief Seats are, Chirk-Castle, late Sir Richard Middleton's; Llewenny, Sir Robert Salisbury's; Cottons-Wynstay, Watkin Williams's, Esq;

There are in all, in England and Wales, together, 25 Cities, 750 great Towns, called Marke-Towns, 9213 Pariſhes, ſome of 40 or 50 Miles Circuit, 61 Foreſts, and about 300 Parks

It

It appears from the Obſervations and Calculations of the late George King, Eſq; publiſhed by Dr. D'avenant, that the Rents of the Lands, by the Produce of the late Taxes, ſeem to be near 10 Millions per Annum; and that the Houſes (not let with the Lands) amount to 2 Millions per Annum: And all other Hereditaments to about 2 Millions more; in all, 14 Millions: So that the People and and Territories of the King of England alone, may be valued for Wealth and Strength at above one half of thoſe of France. And ſince the whole Annual Expence of the King of England's Subjects is about 50 Millions, it will require but an 8th part thereof to maintain 100,000 Foot, 30,000 Horſe, 40,000 Seamen, and to defray all other Charges of the Government Ordinary and Extraordinary.

England without Wales, is divided into 6 Circuits, allotted to the 12 Judges to hold Aſſizes twice a Year. It is alſo divided by the King's Juſtices in Eyre of the Forreſts, and by the Kings of Arms, into North and South; that is, all Counties upon the North and South-ſide of Trent.
